

Imagination Initiative Scavenger Hunt

Main

I am three! There are board books and ships near me!

I am a dog from space! I fly around the world to learn about this place. I love books...be sure to check the nooks!

Down by the bay where the watermelons grow, to the InvestiKits I dare to go.

Ready, set, go...to where you can see books and a playground, then you'll be the one to know.

Imagination Initiative Scavenger Hunt

Main

I am a dragon but have no fear. I perch on a fiery pink wall where the balcony is near. I've stayed because it is the greatest landing here!

Hi, my name is Lumie. When I hang out with the other teens I can't stay gloomy.

Beehives are best with flower power! Come see me, the bee within the hour.

Joy is what the Maker Space brings, because Sushi Cats love to make interesting things.

This is so cool, an Edible Garden! Even my bunny thought to wander in.

Imagination Initiative Scavenger Hunt

Reynolds

Cats love cozy chairs for napping. I woke up from my nap and jumped down from my orange chair ready to explore.

Crack open the front door of the library and you might find my egg hatching!

My name is Pan and I am a teen. You will still find me in between at my favorite color...which is bright blue. I hope this is enough of a clue!

I love all the things I can do at the library! Don't you? Right now, I am waiting to login to the computer to play my favorite game.

Imagination Initiative Scavenger Hunt

Meadows

The only thing I like more than my bow, is my favorite color rojo!

I am waving “hi” but I am also shy. Sometimes I hide but never in places that are very wide.

You will see me flying inside and out. I like to adventure all about!

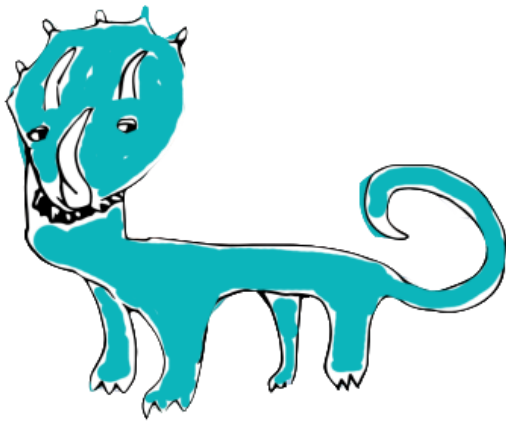

I'm a helpful library cat and I like watching people return their books, even if I get some surprising looks.

I am a teen and hang out in that scene.

Imagination Initiative Scavenger Hunt

NoBo

I love watching DVDs.
They were not around until after I was extinct!

I like to swim near the sea floor.
You will see me near children's books to the left of the door!

Imagination Initiative Scavenger Hunt

Carnegie

I'm a bonus character that you can find when you're out and about in downtown Boulder.

I'll meet you outside of an old, beautiful library where I enjoy visiting to explore this town's rich history!
